

Artist Interview: Johnny Hiland on The Jamcast - Session 5

Tuesday, 15 January 2008 10:29

---

In Session Five of our Artist Interview with country guitar sensation Johnny Hiland, GJD's Ken Volpe and Johnny talk about his career in the music business and about signing with Steve Vai's label Favored Nations, and where the relationship with the label stands today. He continues on to discuss his new album with the Johnny Hiland Band. He tells the story behind the new record and what happened as he was putting it together. Johnny tells the story of the challenges in his personal life that inspired him to push forward with a new band and the record. Lastly, Johnny talks about the latest instructional materials he's created for players to help them become better pickers. Enjoy this very special session of The Jamcast.

Listen to Session Five with Johnny Hiland >
{enclose JOHNNYH5.mp3}