

To play guitar in Prince's band you have to have massive chops and need to be incredibly musical, and that describes guitarist Mike Scott to a TT. In our Artist Interview with Mike Scott, GJD's Ken Volpe riffs on a variety of notes from Mike's weekend at Experience PRS, his gigs with Prince and Justin Timberlake, to his current career in music. Mike also talks about his relationship with PRS and how he became an endorsee. You'll also get a peek into his past and how he's become a success in the music business today. There's much that you'll be able to learn from this guitar man.
