

LA Amp Show Adds Vintage Sunday

Monday, 21 July 2008 08:31

The fourth Annual LA Amp Show will be two days for the first time. As in previous years, there will be the popular "Tone Wizards" seminars and over 60 companies representing state of the art and boutique new amps, effects, guitars and bass products. The "Pedalboard From Hell" will once again be available for all to enjoy, with over 35 of the greatest effects at your feet. A special feature of this years show will be the inclusion of a pre-1970 amplifier area on Sunday only called the Vintage Amp Exchange Day. Collectors are invited to display classic; Fender, Marshall, Vox, Gibson, etc. amps from the "Golden Era".

An open area is set aside for this new unique event on the grounds of the conference center.
