

Today on The Jamcast, we have Part 2 with Frank Hannon of Tesla. Frank and Ken Volpe riff on the gear that he uses both live and in the studio. He talks about his love for Gibson guitars, especially the Flying V. Frank also discusses the Marshall amps and the Line 6 pedals that are a huge part of his sound. At the end, Frank also talks about the challenge of keeping the production balance real from the studio to the stage.

Enjoy part II with Tesla's Frank Hannon!
{enclose TESLA.mp3}