

In today's session of the Jamcast, GJD's Ken Volpe spends time with Bill Kirchen, Grammy nominated guitarist, singer and songwriter. In Part 2 of their interview, Bill and Ken talk about his approach to soloing and improvisation. They also discuss how it is probably best to not try to think too much when playing. Bill also talks about how players differ from genre to genre. He reveals what his approach is on two recent gigs with both Nick Lowe and with RatDog. At the end, they discuss his gear.

Enjoy this session of the Jamcast with Bill Kirchen! {enclose BILL2.mp3}