

In Session Four of our Artist Interview with country guitar sensation Johnny Hiland, GJD's Ken Volpe and Johnny talk about his spirituality and connection to a higher power. He reveals the sense of purpose he feels each day through his connection to God. Johnny goes on to talk about his sense of gratitude towards the people and companies that support his music and career. Next, the conversation turns the work Johnny does with kids who are in distress and how he helps them. Lastly, you'll hear about how Johnny deals with his own difficult times. Enjoy this very special session of The Jamcast.
