

Another big draw this past weekend at Experience PRS was the appearance of guitar wiz Johnny Hiland. For those of who think Johnny is just a country boy, think again. Johnny floored the crowd with his country, rock, blues, and funky guitar playing - he can play it all with authority. He is one of the brightest talents on the instrument today. Plus, he simply one of the nicest, down-to-earth, funny guys you'll ever meet.

In this clip Johnny opens up his workshop with some classic chickin' pickin'.

Click on the link below to launch the video player >

Experience PRS